TRIAL - Cont'd.

in Democratic Yemen, Brother Taha Ali Saleh, Attorney General of the Republic, presented a brief explanation on the activity of the accused people and the elements standing behind their subversive activities outside the territories of the republic and also the areas where they come to them often in the side and outside and the persons with whom they dealt for implementing their criminal plans which aim at blasting the economic installations and densely populated areas with the aim of shaking stability and stirring chaos amidst the ranks of the peaceful citizens.

The Attorney General asked the court board to expose the role of others who are standing behind this plan whether they are in the side or in the outside. He expressed regret that such criminal activity is being carried out by men from the people of Yemen backed by imperialist and reactionary puppets known for their continuous hostility for our Yemeni people and its progressive regime.

Following this, the Chief Justice reviewed the pictures, files and different specimens of the explosives and devices which reveal and indict the accused persons and the elements who helped and trained them and stand behind them.

The session was adjourned until 8.30 next Wednesday morning.
